

The large loop on the tab is a signifier to the affordance of hooking into, which can be done with hands, or with a tool. Once the loop is grabbed, the only way that it can move is by being pulled up, and with a larger tab, the seal affords easier grip for lifting and peeling off of the bottle.